Carroll University Aims to Provide 50,000 Meals with Annual National Service Project

Alumni get involved by giving back and fighting hunger across the United States.

MILWAUKEE, WI (April 1, 2019) – Carroll University is reaching out to communities across the U.S. to provide 50,000 meals to feed the hungry during the month of April with its National Service Project.

Donations can be made at Feeding America Eastern Wisconsin or another food pantry in their community, but individuals also can give online or by texting, so everyone can participate in this legacy of service.

- To donate online, visit <https://ampyourgood.com/user/campaigns/3255>
- To donate via mobile phone, text PIONEERS to 41444 or visit <https://app.mobilecause.com/f/18hj/n>

More than 46 million Americans don't get enough food, but in the past eight years, Carroll alumni have put more than 319,000 meals on the tables of those in need.

Food donations also can be accepted at these Carroll University locations in April:

- Campus Center Lobby, 101 N. East Ave.
- Todd Wehr Memorial Library, 200 N. East Ave.
- Center for Graduate Studies, 2140 Davidson Rd.

The month-long campaign will include volunteer opportunities to sort food donations.
